

BUBT's Joy Rally on UNESCO's recognition of historic March 7 speech

November 25, 2017

Bangladesh University of Business and Technology (BUBT) has brought out a 'Joy Rally' on Saturday Morning, November 25, 2017 at 11 am to celebrate The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization -UNESCO's recent recognition of the Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh

Mujibur Rahman's historic March 7 speech as "World Heritage".

A Speech can change the fortune of a nation; it can be an image, representing people's dream and expectations. There is no way to establish an ideology without any motto or speech. The 'March 7 speech' of Bangabandhu had been noted down in the leaf of the history of the world at that time. It was just like a lighthouse to the Bengali Nation which enlightened the way of the freedom in 1971. We got an independent country, the 'Bangladesh', because of the Historic Speech.

The rally brought out from BUBT's Campus-2, adjacent to the Dhaka Commerce College, and after marching Rainkhola, Mirpur-1, Mirpur-2, Proshika point, and Shialbari point and its permanent Campus at Rupnagar of Mirpur, Dhaka, it was ended at the historic Suhrawarrdy Udyan.

Honorable Members of the BUBT Trust, honorable Vice-Chancellor, Deans of all faculties, Chairmen of various Departments, Faculty Members, Officials, Staffs and enormous Students of BUBT took part in the Rally.
