BUBT Participates in Digital World-2017

10 December, 2017: Students of Bangladesh University of Business and Technology (BUBT) has participated in the ICT Festival 'Digital World-2017' with BUBT's marvelous IT Stall at Bangabandhu International Conference Center on Wednesday, 6 December, 2017. A Question Leak Prevention Software, Created by the CSE students of BUBT, was one of the best attractions in the festival's exhibition. Prof. Md. Abu Saleh, Honorable Vice Chairman of the University has visited the Stall.

Later, students and faculty members of the CSE Department of BUBT have attended a seminar on 'Cyber Security in Context of Bangladesh', organized by the ICT Division of Bangladesh Govt. with the co-operation of BASIS and Bangladesh Computer Council (BCC) at the Green View-1 room of Bangabandhu International Conference Center (BICC.

Prof. Dr. Shafique Ahmed Siddique, Convener, Academic Advisory Committee and Member, BUBT Trust was the Chief Guest at the Seminar. He said in his speech that serious financial damage has been caused by security breaches, but because there is no standard model for estimating the cost of an incident. He advised,

'People should careful of the using their smart phones along with professional field for their personal life's security too.'

Prof. Md Abu Saleh, Vice-Chancellor, BUBT was the Special Guest and Prof. Dr. Ameer Ali, Chairman of the CSE Dept. of BUBT, was the Keynote Speaker at the program. Among others, Prof. Mian Lutfar Rahman, Proctor, BUBT, Tanvir Hassan Zoha, IT Specialist, A H M Azmal Hossain, Joint Registrar, BUBT, Deans of Various Faculties, Chairmen of different Departments, faculty members, Students and officials, and supporting staffs were present at the Seminar.

Prof. Dr. Ameer Ali, Chairman of the CSE Dept. of BUBT presented the Importance, Impact and Recommendations of Cyber Security in Keynote Paper.