

Two workshops on self-assessment held in BUBT

Self-assessment Committees of the department of Business, CSE, EEE and English of Bangladesh University of Business and Technology (BUBT) have recently organized two different workshops on self-assessment at the International Conference Hall of the University campus, Rupnagar, Mirpur-2, Dhaka.

On Wednesday, December 26, 2018, the Department of Business Administration organized its workshop on Completion of Self-assessment Process & Implementation of PSAIP where Professor Dr. Mesbahuddin Ahmed, Chairman, Higher Education Accreditation Council of Bangladesh spoke as the Chief Guest. He was grateful to see BUBT's self-assessment report and recommendations to be implemented here. He suggested that BUBT should continue spending money on ground level survey to know the gap between reality and expectations. This university is great, but there is a chance to become much better and it needs to give the best, it also has to make itself ideal. He believed that there is no replacement of the quality in higher education in Bangladesh. Mr. Ahmed thinks, M. Phil programs should be approved by the University Grants Commission of Bangladesh (UGC), if universities have adequate resources to provide such degrees. After inauguration, He also conducted a session on Challenges of the Implementation of Post Self-assessment Improvement Plan (PSAIP).

Prof. Dr. Shafique Ahmed Siddique, Chairman, BUBT Trust; Professor Md. Enayet Hossain Miah, Treasurer, BUBT and Prof. Santi Narayan Ghosh, Head of IQAC and Director of Research, BUBT attended as the Special Guests. The workshop was presided over by the professor Md. Abu Saleh, Vice Chancellor, BUBT. Prof. Dr. Syed Masud Husain, Dean, Faculty of Business delivered the welcome speech.
